Nominate a degree program to be part of the Open SUNY launch in January 2014

What degree programs will be part of the Open SUNY launch?

The January 2014 launch of Open SUNY will include a limited release of SUNY's best online-enabled degree programs. These programs should:

- ✓ Be fully or predominantly online
- ✓ Incorporate instructional approaches and technologies to increase student engagement and completion
- ✓ Demonstrate high employer demand, high student demand, and strong support from faculty and campus leadership
- ✓ Already incorporate or be open to incorporating innovative instructional tools, experiential learning, student advisory services, faculty support services, and additional Open SUNY services as they are developed
- ✓ Be willing to pilot innovations, share best practices, and participate in the development of policies to enable Open SUNY

Why nominate your degree program?

For selected programs, the benefits include:

- ✧ Meaningful opportunities to shape the design of Open SUNY
- ✧ Significantly expanded publicity for program
- ✧ Access to resources to support students, faculty, and your institution

Submit nominations via the survey link by Friday, October 4th at 5 pm!

Why nominate your degree program?

Departments and faculty are encouraged to nominate their programs with sponsorship from campus leadership. Nominations are due no later than Friday, October 4th at 5 pm. The nominations will be reviewed and receive follow up communication by October 11th.
